ORDER

GREGORY H. WOODS, United States District Judge:

On October 17, 2022, the defendant was sentenced principally to a term of imprisonment of 54 months.

On November 3, 2023, the defendant filed a motion (the “Motion”) requesting that this court consider a sentence reduction pursuant to Amendment 821 to the Sentencing Guideline amendment which went into effect on November 1, 2023 and applies retroactively. Dkt. No. 245. The United States Probation Department has issued a report indicating that the defendant is not eligible for a sentence reduction.

The Court has considered the record in this case, and the Motion, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(2). The defendant meets the criteria for a recalculation of his offense level because he was a zero-point offender. The applicable guidelines range giving the effect to that reduction is 57–71 months imprisonment.

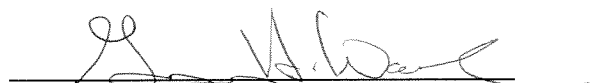

It is hereby ORDERED that the defendant is ineligible for a reduction in his sentence because the original sentence of 54 months was at or below the low end of the amended guideline range of 57–71 months. As a result, the Motion is denied.

The Court certifies, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3), that any appeal from this order would not be taken in good faith, and therefore IFP status is denied for the purpose of an appeal. See Coppedge v. United States, 369 U.S. 438, 444–45 (1962).

The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate the motion pending at Dkt. No. 245, and to mail a copy of this order, together with the Court's order filed at Dkt. No. 248, to Mr. Surur by first class mail.

SO ORDERED.
